

The Bookies will review

Ireland

by

Frank Delaney

Tuesday, April 29, 2008

At 4:00 p.m.

at

Deer Park

The home of Diane Davis

Book and Movie Review
Ireland

April 29, 2008
by Frank Delaney

Name	Grade	Comments
Judy Bush	A	I totally enjoyed the stories of Ireland. It was even better wrapped inside the story of Ronan. The story inside a story made the legends of Ireland be even more interesting. I learned a lot about Ireland through the traits of the people.
Diane Davis	A	After reading this book, I yearn to be Irish. What a beautiful way with words. I loved his style and gift of language.
Sheryl D.	A	I so enjoyed these illuminating, provocative stories of Ireland. It really made me miss my Scot (Rich)... He would have loved this book. I was so excited to learn more history. Especially to have confirmation there is a snipe after all!
Mora	A	It was a great way to learn the history of Ireland within another story that was engaging. Well-earned reputation for the gift of gab!
Marsha Boon

Diane Davis