Name	Grade	Comments
Judy Bush	A	How could we not have known what a monumental event in the history of America & the world. This was so interesting, well written & well researched. It was nonfiction that read like a fiction.
Jan Lewallen
Nora Ruppert	A-	Learned so much about this period, another of those formative events in US history. So much came together in a short time, a little like post revolutionary America.
Sheryl Davidson	A	I couldn't believe I knew very little about this World Columbian Exposition of 1893 - I learned so much and especially how significant this world fair was in the history of our nation. I found the book so fascinating a real murder between the murders & the fair!
Martha Boon
Suzie Davis	A	I loved hearing the author speak at Sojourn. I loved this book. It was so interesting.
